ADMINISTRATOR'S MEMORANDUM NO. 14

Delegation of Authority to the Associate Administrators to Approve Memoranda of Understanding Relating to Soil Conservation Districts

1. There is hereby delegated to each Associate Administrator, War Food Administration, authority to sign, on behalf of the Administrator, memoranda of understanding entered into by the Department of Agriculture --

- (a) With the Governing Bodies of soil conservation districts organized under State Districts Laws;
- (b) With State Soil Conservation Committees, or other State or local agencies, concerning cooperation with soil conservation districts in soil and water conservation development and use work.

2. This delegation does not affect the authority in paragraph numbered 3 of "A Statement by the Secretary of Agriculture Concerning Departmental Cooperation with Soil Conservation Districts" dated September 21, 1940, conferred upon agencies now in the War Food Administration to sign, or delegate the signing of, supplemental memoranda of understanding or other arrangements that may be entered into pursuant to a basic memorandum between the Department and a soil conservation district. Forms for such supplemental memoranda or other arrangements used by War Food Administration agencies, additional to those already in use, shall be cleared with an Associate Administrator and the Office of the Solicitor before being used in the field.

3. All previous memoranda are superseded to the extent that they conflict or are otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this memorandum.

4. The provisions of this memorandum shall be effective immediately.
